Dear parents,

Live & Inspired!

Interactive Music Concert for Year 5 & 6, Thursday 7th April

I am delighted to let you know about an upcoming music concert called Live & Inspired! On 7th April we will be visited by a group of young musicians for an interactive experience, led by Bournemouth Symphony Orchestra violist Alison Kaye.

Alison is proud to present music students from world leading music institutions the Royal College of Music and Oxford University to provide a fun and truly inspirational concert. Featuring a diverse range of styles and genres on their violins and violas, this performance will give pupils and idea of what it is like to study music to the top level and make it a profession in the real world. Filled with tunes the students will know and love, there will be plenty of interaction with the musicians and will surely inspire pupils to pick up an instrument!

This performance is part of our partnership with SoundStorm who are the main music education organisation within the area.

Yours sincerely
